IT'S IN OUR DNA

The Family Estate dei F.lli Loia,
MONTALCINO / ITALY,
Award Winning Organic Red Wines

Azienda Palazzo, owned by the Loia-Palazzo family, located in the south eastern area of Montalcino Tuscany. In a dominant position at 320 meters above sea level, and covering a total area of 12 hectares, of which 4 are cultivated with Sanvgiovese Grosso Brunello vineyards and 3 olive groves.

Practicing “Integrated Agriculture” using only organic fertilizers and disinfectants for organic farming.

The terrain presents layers of original rocks, in particular galestro mart, but also rich in limestone.

The vineyards are located in beautiful landscapes, exposed to the sun from morning until evening, also very well protected from the north breezes. A strict selection, during the vegetative cycle, allows the grapes to mature well before being strictly hand picked.
